Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

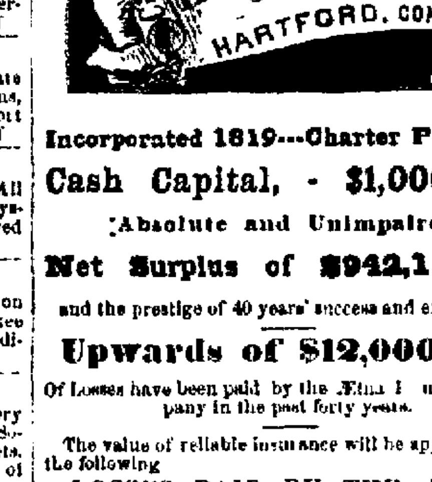

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM PRESIDENTS OF COLLEGES.

Within the last few weeks the publishers have received flattering testimonials of the merits of this edition, from nearly THIRTY Presidents of as many of the leading Colleges of the United States. Among them are from Presidents Frelinghuysen of Rutgers, Walker of Harvard, Hopkins of Williams, Stearns of Amherst, Cummings of Middletown, Nott of Union, Wayland of Providence, Jackson of Hobart, Woods of Brunswick, Lord of Dartmouth, Pease of Burlington, Ballou of Tufts, Gale of Galesville, Ciampi of Holy Cross, Murphy of Abington, Labaree of Middlebury, Andrews of Marietta, Fisher of Hamilton, Reed of Shurtliff, Sturtevant of Illinois, Reynolds of Illinois, Collins of Wilkinson, Anderson of Rochester, Wallace of Monmouth, Curtis of Knox &c. In them are expressions like the following:—

"An honor to American science, taste and criticism." "An enduring value and authority." "Never found any work which so uniformly satisfied my inquiries." "Has ever since been my constant companion in my practice at the bar, and for the last five years upon the bench — I have ever found it a safe counsellor, and an indispensable help in the preparation and decision of cases." "For the sake of my country and the English language, I rejoice in the wonderful standard excellence, as well as celebrity, your Dictionary has attained. It is a work for the present, and for all coming time." "Stands unquestionably preeminent." "There seems every prospect that it will be the standard book for this country, at least, if not for England. I am content it should be so." "This truly great and national work." "A complete apparatus for all purposes of reading and understanding English and American literature. It is difficult to conceive of anything that could be added to fit it for these ends." "A vast treasury of knowledge, the whole of which is needed by every one who uses the English language, either as a writer, a speaker, or a reader." "Ought to be a part of the furniture of every American house." "We long ago accepted Webster as the standard in our college, and the experience of every term strengthens our conviction of the wisdom of our choice." "So long as you continue to incorporate all the improvements which are developed in the science of lexicography," &c., &c. 30w2m.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

The Harvest.

The song of the harvest is everywhere.— Its notes fall sweetly upon the ear, as they float upon the prairie; away there, just subsiding, and away there, just beginning, and so they will pass the strain along, till the music has been wafted round the world.

Along "down the river," the gleaners are out after the reapers; the golden cones are rising here and there, as the grain is dashing down like a mountain torrent, amid the cloudy tempest of the thresher.

The music has floated up from the south, has come over to us from Iowan fields and down from Wisconsin, and across from Michigan and up from Ohio. And every syllable of the song is Saxon; and it needs neither Lexicon nor interpreter, it is the great Lyric of the age.

And these are but random notes from the great tune they are everywhere singing. If we are not the most grateful people in the world, it will only be because we are a nation of utter ingrates. With a land, dimpled with valleys that might have been hollowed for Eden, and smiling with prairies, just ready to laugh out aloud, we wonder sometimes, what infatuation it is, that keeps men the prisoners of the cities, the only part of this beautiful world that God did not make, when they can be so independent, so care-free, so strong in hand, or panting after the reaper on their own broad acres.

The sun that only burns the brows of other men, turns the work of their hands to glory and gold. The rains that bring discomfort to other men, are beating the reveille of life and plenty for them. The clouds, that only fleck the blue or hide the day from other eyes, have richest freights consigned to fields their hands have ploughed. The snow that seems a cold, white shroud to other men, is a downy mantle for their fall-sown grain. Each month throughout the year, comes with errands and gifts to them, and there is not a Judas in all the twelve.

That our great progenitor should have been a gardener is, to us, no mystery at all, but that such direct, such childlike appeals to nature's generous bosom for life's best gifts, should have been set aside for books and bustling crowds, and men prefer her offerings second hand, will forever remain a marvel.

The gold of the mine is dross compared with the gold of the grain, and there is no authorship so grand as that which writes over thousands of acres the legible language of plenty.

It seems to us that the prairies were altered by the God of nature, and held in reserve away in the west, and girded round about with forests and lakes, to recall man from the store, the shop, the office, and give glow to his cheek, strength to his sinews, health to his pulses, and gifts to his garners. If the mellenium ever comes, it will be when there are fewer lawyers and physicians and merchants and editors, and a world full of farmers and gardeners. We rather think, tho' at present wanting any direct evidence on the subject, that paradise will reappear where it was found at first, in some glorious garden or other. Our hopes point to the far west as an eligible spot for breaking up the old fallows again, and where the sons and daughters of the long gone tenants of Eden, may enter into the latter day inheritance.—Chicago Journal.

A PECULIARITY OF HORICON LAKE.—This lake covers forty sections or miles square, and was once an immense marsh, partly covered by quaking bog, and abounding in springs of pure cold water. The Argus says that the dam at Horicon raised the water to the depth of from twelve to thirty or forty feet, and since its erection the bog has been raising in large masses, sometimes to an extent of forty or fifty acres in a place. This bog passes over the dam and down the river, leaving a clear gravel bottom where it once was. Fish and game abound in and around the lake, making it a popular resort for sporting men.

In 1852 the Cleveland Plaindealer got out a map exhibiting the route traveled by Gen. Scott, then a candidate for the presidency, in going from and returning to West Point, from some place on the Ohio river where his official duties called him. This map as may be supposed exhibited more sinuosities and remarkable curves, than a western railroad, and did much to confirm the suspicion suggested by the Plaindealer, that Gen. Scott might be looking after his chances for the presidency. The Dealer had another excellent chance to air its genius in that respect. Let it get up a map of Douglas' route on his recent visit to his mother in New York. It will beat Gen. Scott's all hollow in sinuosities.—Free Dem.

SINGULAR SUICIDE.—Mr. Charles Octavia committed suicide whilst upon a hunting excursion in Minnesota. His body was discovered a few days afterwards, protected by his faithful dog. A letter, written by himself, was found upon his person, stating his intentions and reasons for committing the act, and the disposal of his property, which was considerable. Mr. Octavia was a resident of Paris, and visited this country as a tourist. His only relative residing in the United States was Mr. Thomas F. Cordes, of Wauwatosa, Wisconsin.

OUTRAGES ON AMERICAN PROPERTY AT MESSINA.—The London Times' correspondent, writing under date of July 22, says:

This morning the whole of the cavalry, including the lancers, with the light infantry, sharp shooters and gens d'armie were embarked on board steamers, which were lying ready for them, and were conveyed to Villa San Giovanni, which is opposite Messina, on the Calabrian coast.

The soldiers of the line were subsequently shipped to Regio. That these robbers are gone is the greatest blessing that ever happened to Messina, as since they have been quartered in the neighborhood they have committed ravages unspeakable. As soon as they landed they entered the garden of Mr. Morgan, the American consul, and helped themselves to its products.

Mr. Morgan complained to the officers, who caused the delinquents to be picked out, and they were sentenced to the bastinado. For this purpose they were brought to Salvador del Greci; but as soon as the picket turned out into the court yard to execute the sentence, the whole mass of the soldiers declared that on the first blow they would shoot every officer. The officers were therefore obliged to set the thieves at liberty.

PROFITABLE BUSINESS.—With a daily circulation of 35,000 copies, it is said that the World newspaper is published at a loss of $600 per day. At this rate, how long will it take for the publishers to make a fortune?

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving, and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.
The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.
Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,000,000
all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM PRESIDENTS OF COLLEGES.

Within the last few weeks the publishers have received flattering testimonials of the merits of this edition, from nearly THIRTY Presidents of as many of the leading Colleges of the United States. Among them are from Presidents Frelinghuysen of Rutgers, Walker of Harvard, Hopkins of Williams, Stearns of Amherst, Cummings of Middletown, Nott of Union, Wayland of Providence, Jackson of Hobart, Woods of Brunswick, Lord of Dartmouth, Pease of Burlington, Ballou of Tufts, Gale of Galesville, Clampit of Holy Cross, Murphy of Abington, Labaree of Middlebury, Andrews of Marietta, Fisher of Hamilton, Reed of Shurtliff, Sturtevant of Illinois, Reynolds of Illinois, Collins of Wilkinson, Anderson of Rochester, Wallace of Monmouth, Curtis of Knox &c. In them are expressions like the following:—
"An honor to American science, taste and criticism." "An enduring value and authority." "Never found any work which so uniformly satisfied my inquiries." "Has ever since been my constant companion in my practice at the bar, and for the last five years upon the bench.—I have ever found it a safe counsellor, and an indispensable help in the preparation and decision of cases." "For the sake of my country and the English language, I rejoice in the wonderful standard excellence, as well as celebrity, your Dictionary has attained. It is a work for the present, and for all coming time." "Stands unquestionably preeminent." "There seems every prospect that it will be the standard book for this country, at least, if not for England. I am content it should be so." "This truly great and national work." "A complete apparatus for all purposes of reading and understanding English and American literature. It is difficult to conceive of anything that could be added to fit it for these ends." "A vast treasury of knowledge, the whole of which is needed by every one who uses the English language, either as a writer, a speaker, or a reader." "Ought to be a part of the furniture of every American house." "We long ago accepted Webster as the standard in our college, and the experience of every term strengthens our conviction of the wisdom of our choice." "So long as you continue to incorporate all the improvements which are developed in the science of lexicography," &c., &c. 36w2m.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS,
Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

The Harvest.

The song of the harvest is everywhere.—Its notes fall sweetly upon the ear, as they float upon the prairie; away there, just subsiding, and away there, just beginning, and so they will pass the strain along, till the music has been wafted round the world.

Along "down the river," the gleaners are out after the reapers; the golden cones are rising here and there, as the grain is dashing down like a mountain torrent, amid the cloudy tempest of the thresher.

The music has floated up from the south, has come over to us from Iowan fields and down from Wisconsin, and across from Michigan and up from Ohio. And every syllable of the song is Saxon; and it needs neither Lexicon nor interpreter, it is the great Lyric of the age.

And these are but random notes from the great tune they are everywhere singing. If we are not the most grateful people in the world, it will only be because we are a nation of utter ingrates. With a land, dimpled with valleys that might have been hollowed for Eden, and smiling with prairies, just ready to laugh out aloud, we wonder sometimes, what infatuation it is, that keeps men the prisoners of the cities, the only part of this beautiful world that God did not make, when they can be so independent, so care-free, so strong in hand, or panting after the reaper on their own broad acres.

The sun that only burns the brows of other men, turns the work of their hands to glory and gold. The rains that bring discomfort to other men, are beating the reveille of life and plenty for them. The clouds, that only fleck the blue or hide the day from other eyes, have richest freights consigned to fields their hands have ploughed. The snow that seems a cold, white shroud to other men, is a downy mantle for their fall-sown grain. Each month throughout the year, comes with errands and gifts to them, and there is not a Judas in all the twelve.

That our great progenitor should have been a gardener is, to us, no mystery at all, but that such direct, such childlike appeals to nature's generous bosom for life's best gifts, should have been set aside for books and bustling crowds, and men prefer her offerings second hand, will forever remain a marvel.

The gold of the mine is dross compared with the gold of the grain, and there is no authorship so grand as that which writes over thousands of acres the legible language of plenty.

It seems to us that the prairies were altered by the God of nature, and held in reserve away in the west, and girded round about with forests and lakes, to recall man from the store, the shop, the office, and give glow to his cheek, strength to his sinews, health to his pulses, and gifts to his garners.

If the mellenium ever comes, it will be when there are fewer lawyers and physicians and merchants and editors, and a world full of farmers and gardeners. We rather think, tho' at present wanting any direct evidence on the subject, that paradise will reappear where it was found at first, in some glorious garden or other. Our hopes point to the far west as an eligible spot for breaking up the old fallows again, and where the sons and daughters of the long gone tenants of Eden, may enter into the latter day inheritance.—Chicago Journal.

A PECULIARITY OF HORICON LAKE.—This lake covers forty sections or miles square, and was once an immense marsh, partly covered by quaking bog, and abounding in springs of pure cold water. The Argus says that the dam at Horicon raised the water to the depth of from twelve to thirty or forty feet, and since its erection the bog has been raising in large masses, sometimes to an extent of forty or fifty acres in a place. This bog passes over the dam and down the river, leaving a clear gravel bottom where it once was. Fish and game abound in and around the lake, making it a popular resort for sporting men.

In 1852 the Cleveland Plaindealer got out a map exhibiting the route traveled by Gen. Scott, then a candidate for the presidency, in going from and returning to West Point, from some place on the Ohio river where his official duties called him. This map as may be supposed exhibited more sinuosities and remarkable curves, than a western railroad, and did much to confirm the suspicion suggested by the Plaindealer, that Gen. Scott might be looking after his chances for the presidency. The Dealer had another excellent chance to air its genius in that respect. Let it get up a map of Douglas' route on his recent visit to his mother in New York. It will beat Gen. Scott's all hollow in sinuosities.—Free Dem.

SINGULAR SUICIDE.—Mr. Charles Octavia committed suicide whilst upon a hunting excursion in Minnesota. His body was discovered a few days afterwards, protected by his faithful dog. A letter, written by himself, was found upon his person, stating his intentions and reasons for committing the act, and the disposal of his property, which was considerable. Mr. Octavia was a resident of Paris, and visited this country as a tourist. His only relative residing in the United States was Mr. Thomas F. Cordes, of Wauwatosa, Wisconsin.

OUTRAGES ON AMERICAN PROPERTY AT MESSINA.—The London Times' correspondent, writing under date of July 22, says;

This morning the whole of the cavalry, including the lancers, with the light infantry, sharp shooters and gens d'armie were embarked on board steamers, which were lying ready for them, and were conveyed to Villa San Giovanni, which is opposite Messina, on the Calabrian coast.

The soldiers of the line were subsequently shipped to Regio. That these robbers are gone is the greatest blessing that ever happened to Messina, as since they have been quartered in the neighborhood they have committed ravages unspeakable. As soon as they landed they entered the garden of Mr. Morgan, the American consul, and helped themselves to its products.

Mr. Morgan complained to the officers, who caused the delinquents to be picked out, and they were sentenced to the bastinado. For this purpose they were brought to Salvador del Greci; but as soon as the picket turned out into the court yard to execute the sentence, the whole mass of the soldiers declared that on the first blow they would shoot every officer. The officers were therefore obliged to set the thieves at liberty.

PROFITABLE BUSINESS.—With a daily circulation of 35,000 copies, it is said that the World newspaper is published at a loss of $600 per day. At this rate, how long will it take for the publishers to make a fortune?

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid
QUARRY OF FREESTONE,
which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,
A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material.
He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated
Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,
on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of
ATHENS MARBLE
(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.
He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.
He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.
He is prepared to furnish
Cut Stone
of every description,
PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING
of any required dimension.
Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing
stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.
In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.
All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.
Terms Cash.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an Indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.
Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000
all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM PRESIDENTS OF COLLEGES.

Within the last few weeks the publishers have received flattering testimonials of the merits of this edition, from nearly THIRTY Presidents of as many of the leading Colleges of the United States. Among them are from Presidents Frelinghuysen of Rutgers, Walker of Harvard, Hopkins of Williams, Stearns of Amherst, Cummings of Middletown, Nott of Union, Wayland of Providence, Jackson of Hobart, Woods of Brunswick, Lord of Dartmouth, Peace of Burlington, Ballou of Tufts, Gale of Galesville, Ciampi of Holy Cross, Murphy of Abington, Labaree of Middlebury, Andrews of Marietta, Fisher of Hamilton, Reed of Shurtliff, Sturtevant of Illinois, Reynolds of Illinois, Collins of Wilkinson, Anderson of Rochester, Wallace of Monmouth, Curtis of Knox &c. In them are expressions like the following:—
"An honor to American science, taste and criticism." "An enduring value and authority." "Never found any work which so uniformly satisfied my inquiries." "Has ever since been my constant companion in my practice at the bar, and for the last five years upon the bench.—I have ever found it a safe counsellor, and an indispensable help in the preparation and decision of cases." "For the sake of my country and the English language, I rejoice in the wonderful standard excellence, as well as celebrity, your Dictionary has attained. It is a work for the present, and for all coming time." "Stands unquestionably preeminent." "There seems every prospect that it will be the standard book for this country, at least, if not for England. I am content it should be so." "This truly great and national work." "A complete apparatus for all purposes of reading and understanding English and American literature. It is difficult to conceive of anything that could be added to fit it for these ends." "A vast treasury of knowledge, the whole of which is needed by every one who uses the English language, either as a writer, a speaker, or a reader." "Ought to be a part of the furniture of every American house." "We long ago accepted Webster as the standard in our college, and the experience of every term strengthens our conviction of the wisdom of our choice." "So long as you continue to incorporate all the improvements which are developed in the science of lexicography," &c., &c. 36w2m.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious Tonic and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and also a certain preventive of CHILLS and FEVERS.

The Harvest.

The song of the harvest is everywhere.—Its notes fall sweetly upon the ear, as they float upon the prairie; away there, just subsiding, and away there, just beginning, and so they will pass the strain along, till the music has been wafted round the world.

Along "down the river," the gleaners are out after the reapers; the golden cones are rising here and there, as the grain is dashing down like a mountain torrent, amid the cloudy tempest of the thresher.

The music has floated up from the south, has come over to us from Iowan fields and down from Wisconsin, and across from Michigan and up from Ohio. And every syllable of the song is Saxon; and it needs neither Lexicon nor interpreter, it is the great Lyric of the age.

And these are but random notes from the great tune they are everywhere singing. If we are not the most grateful people in the world, it will only be because we are a nation of utter ingrates. With a land, dimpled with valleys that might have been hollowed for Eden, and smiling with prairies, just ready to laugh out aloud, we wonder sometimes, what infatuation it is, that keeps men the prisoners of the cities, the only part of this beautiful world that God did not make, when they can be so independent, so care-free, so strong in hand, or panting after the reaper on their own broad acres.

The sun that only burns the brows of other men, turns the work of their hands to glory and gold. The rains that bring discomfort to other men, are beating the reveille of life and plenty for them. The clouds, that only fleck the blue or hide the day from other eyes, have richest freights consigned to fields their hands have ploughed. The snow that seems a cold, white shroud to other men, is a downy mantle for their fall-sown grain. Each month throughout the year, comes with errands and gifts to them, and there is not a Judas in all the twelve.

That our great progenitor should have been a gardener is, to us, no mystery at all, but that such direct, such childlike appeals to nature's generous bosom for life's best gifts, should have been set aside for books and bustling crowds, and men prefer her offerings second hand, will forever remain a marvel.

The gold of the mine is dross compared with the gold of the grain, and there is no authorship so grand as that which writes over thousands of acres the legible language of plenty.

It seems to us that the prairies were altered by the God of nature, and held in reserve away in the west, and girded round about with forests and lakes, to recall man from the store, the shop, the office, and give glow to his cheek, strength to his sinews, health to his pulses, and gifts to his gaeners.

If the mellenium ever comes, it will be when there are fewer lawyers and physicians and merchants and editors, and a world full of farmers and gardeners. We rather think, tho' at present wanting any direct evidence on the subject, that paradise will reappear where it was found at first, in some glorious garden or other. Our hopes point to the far west as an eligible spot for breaking up the old fallows again, and where the sons and daughters of the long gone tenants of Eden, may enter into the latter day inheritance.—Chicago Journal.

A PECULIARITY OF HORICON LAKE.—This lake covers forty sections or miles square, and was once an immense marsh, partly covered by quaking bog, and abounding in springs of pure cold water. The Argus says that the dam at Horicon raised the water to the depth of from twelve to thirty or forty feet, and since its erection the bog has been raising in large masses, sometimes to an extent of forty or fifty acres in a place. This bog passes over the dam and down the river, leaving a clear gravel bottom where it once was. Fish and game abound in and around the lake, making it a popular resort for sporting men.

In 1852 the Cleveland Plaindealer got out a map exhibiting the route traveled by Gen. Scott, then a candidate for the presidency, in going from and returning to West Point, from some place on the Ohio river where his official duties called him. This map as may be supposed exhibited more sinuosities and remarkable curves, than a western railroad, and did much to confirm the suspicion suggested by the Plaindealer, that Gen. Scott might be looking after his chances for the presidency. The Dealer had another excellent chance to air its genius in that respect. Let it get up a map of Douglas' route on his recent visit to his mother in New York. It will beat Gen. Scott's all hollow in sinuosities.—Free Dem.

SINGULAR SUICIDE.—Mr. Charles Octavia committed suicide whilst upon a hunting excursion in Minnesota. His body was discovered a few days afterwards, protected by his faithful dog. A letter, written by himself, was found upon his person, stating his intentions and reasons for committing the act, and the disposal of his property, which was considerable. Mr. Octavia was a resident of Paris, and visited this country as a tourist. His only relative residing in the United States was Mr. Thomas F. Cordes, of Wauwatosa, Wisconsin.

OUTRAGES ON AMERICAN PROPERTY AT MESSINA.—The London Times' correspondent, writing under date of July 22, says:

This morning the whole of the cavalry, including the lancers, with the light infantry, sharp shooters and gens d'armie were embarked on board steamers, which were lying ready for them, and were conveyed to Villa San Giovanni, which is opposite Messina, on the Calabrian coast.

The soldiers of the line were subsequently shipped to Regio. That these robbers are gone is the greatest blessing that ever happened to Messina, as since they have been quartered in the neighborhood they have committed ravages unspeakable. As soon as they landed they entered the garden of Mr. Morgan, the American consul, and helped themselves to its products.

Mr. Morgan complained to the officers, who caused the delinquents to be picked out, and they were sentenced to the bastinado. For this purpose they were brought to Salvador del Greci; but as soon as the picket turned out into the court yard to execute the sentence, the whole mass of the soldiers declared that on the first blow they would shoot every officer. The officers were therefore obliged to set the thieves at liberty.

PROFITABLE BUSINESS.—With a daily circulation of 35,000 copies, it is said that the World newspaper is published at a loss of $600 per day. At this rate, how long will it take for the publishers to make a fortune?

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid
QUARRY OF FREESTONE,
which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,
A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,
He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated
Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,
on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of
ATHENS MARBLE
(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.
He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.
He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.
He is prepared to furnish
Cut Stone
of every description,
PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING
of any required dimension,
Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing,
stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.
In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.
All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—an origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

Wheat Crop of Wisconsin.

The Madison Argus makes the following estimate of the wheat crop in Dane county:

Dane county contains, besides the lakes, 760,000 acres of land. It is a low estimate to say that one-fifth of this land is this year in crop. Many estimate it as high as one-third; more at one-fourth. But we say one-fifth is under cultivation—that is about 150,000 acres. Of the amount under cultivation, two-thirds, or 100,000 acres are covered by the wheat crop.

It is a low estimate to say that the product of wheat will average 26 bushels to the acre. But taking that as an average, we can readily enter into a computation of the crop, and the the surplus in this county alone:

No. of acres,	100,000
No. of bushels	2,600,000
Amount reserved for home consumption and seed,	600,000
Surplus,	2,000,000
Price at 75c per bushel,	$1,250,000

Rock County.—Dane county has thirty-two townships, Rock county twenty. The estimate on which a yield of 2,400,000 bushels was made in Rock county, supposed a fourth of the county grown to wheat, and the yield to be 20 bushels to the acre. So far as we have heard, the yield per acre will exceed this estimate; and allowing the amount of land estimated to be sown to be correct, and calling the yield 25 bushels to the acre, there will be a gross product, in round numbers, of 3,000,000 bushels in Rock county. Last week we asked the opinion of farmers or others acquainted with the county on this point. No one has yet responded, perhaps because each individual, though qualified to judge of his own town or locality, is not himself sufficiently acquainted with the whole county to pass an intelligent judgment upon it. We should be pleased to hear from some well-informed person in each town as to his own town, and if each is, in this manner, reported separately, an aggregate can very easily be made.

Grant County.—The Grant County Herald says—"The average yield is much greater to the acre than was anticipated. It was thought that 18 or 19 bushels would be a fair estimate, but those who have threshed assert that the yield is near 28 bushels to the acre. Grant will have at least one million bushels of wheat to spare to distant consumers."

Columbia County.—The Jeffersonian says that a gentleman engaged in threshing in Columbia county states that every farm on which he has threshed, the wheat averaged over 30 bushels to the acre.

The north-western states are unquestionably more favored this season than any other portion of the Union, and of these states no one has been more richly blessed than Wisconsin. While the productions of other sections of the country have been scorched and dried up by a blazing sun and want of rain, or injured by some of the many casualties which ever endanger a growing crop, the north-west has been signally fortunate in every circumstance favorable to unusual production and abundance.

Fond du Lac Railroad Bonds.—The New York Herald says that a proposition has been received from the city of Fond du Lac to compromise its railroad bonds.—The city authorities offer to redeem the $100,000 of 7 per cent bonds issued to the Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac railroad, by giving the holders an amount equal to the principal and interest due them in the stock of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad; to the holders of the $150,000 8 per cent. bonds they offer 30 per cent. in the Chicago and Northwestern stock, and 25 per cent. in new city bonds, to be secured by a sinking fund.

The Herald says that the circular making this proposition declares that "the city of Fond du Lac, desirous of compromising with its bondholders, submit the enclosed proposition as one they can fulfil, and the only one."

The Olden Time.—The rapid progress of modern days is vividly exhibited by a recurrence to the predictions which have accompanied the announcement of the discoveries or inventions which has characterised the present age. Very many readers will remember that while Dr. Lardner, the Napoleon of physical science, was authoritatively declaring steam navigation on the ocean an impracticability, the Sirius was falsifying the correctness of his opinion. When Prof. Morse commenced the construction of his electric telegraph between Baltimore and Washington, he encountered more skepticism than faith in his theory, and a small appropriation by congress to enable him to make his experiment was extorted only after a laborious effort, and granted more as a compliment to the man than as an acknowledgment of confidence in the success of his discovery.

Railroads, when the idea of faster locomotion than the stage coach began to assume a practical form, was no exception to the prevailing skepticism and ridicule with which other great improvements have been greeted. The English Quarterly Review, in 1825, gravely declared—"We are no advocate for visionary projects that interfere with useful establishments. We scout the idea of a railroad as impracticable! What can be more palpably absurd and ridiculous than the prospect of locomotives traveling twice as fast as stage coaches. We should as soon expect the people of Woolwich to suffer themselves to be fired off upon one of Congreve's rockets, as to put themselves at the mercy of such a machine, going at such a rate."

So, too, when it was proprosed to use gas as a means of lighting streets and buildings, there was no end to the ridicule with which the idea was assailed, until theory had become demonstration. It is related that a member of the English House of Commons opposed its introduction into London, because the fire would run through the pipes and there would not be engines enough to put it out.

Who shall say that many of the ideas now pronounced chimerical shall not, in another fifty years, become, like steam ships, railroads and gas, the necessary comforts of life or indispensable aids to business and progression?

Mourning!—The Chicago Herald and Times is in a mournful spirit. Nothing has more deeply impressed it recently than "the final and hopeless split of the democracy of Virginia." "The mother of democracy" has a sore trouble in her family.—The time has been when "with a rare devotion to principle, she has at the same time ever shown herself the foremost to conciliate and harmonise the democracy." But, now, alas! even she "has met a rock upon which to split." Hear the mournful tune in which the Herald relates her misfortunes:

"The conventions have utterly failed to agree and have separated to wage from henceforth a war of extermination upon each other. Virginia is to all appearances lost to democracy in the present campaign. The great names and tried democrats arrayed on each side of the family quarrel leave but the shadow of a hope for success to either. The state, as now divided, must go for Bell and Everett. We cannot anticipate the fall of the Virginia democracy, even in a single campaign, without deep regret."

Has it not occured to this tearful mourner that other states than Virginia are in the same distracted condition? That Bell and Everett will take possession of other members of the once happy family? and that Breckinridge will find favor with enough others to leave the "Little Giant" a penniless and discarded offspring? Truly, the mourners go about the streets all day with little present comfort and less hope for the future.

☞ The Monroe meeting, a genuine "fizzle" as it was, seems a perfect god-send to the democracy. It has enabled as disconsolate a set of mortals as you seldom meet, a chance to say something: and has not the chance been improved! A correspondent of the Chicago Herald and Times emulates "Sioux" in spirit, though he falls short of that renowned chronicler in length. This last writer, dating at Janesville, asserts that "there were not less than 5,000 people on the ground, and at every mention of Douglas' name, cheer after cheer burst from the assembly, showing that he holds the first place in the hearts of the people." The speeches are characterised as "soul-stirring efforts," "sound argument," "noble," "powerful and telling," while "hearty cheers," "booming cannon," "torches," "banners," "music," "enthusiasm," "densely filled," "decided success," &c. grace the narrative. In one thing, however, this correspondent shows his good sense; he "only gives the programme from 11 a. m." A want of time, we suppose, prevents a description of the starting of the excursion train from Janesville.

Why was not this report sent to the Cleveland Plaindealer?

☞ The Free Democrat says that Gen. Jas. H. Paine and Judge A. D. Smith are retained as counsel for Mr. Daniels, in the complaint against him for rescuing Booth. C. C. Sholes and J. L. Bonesteel became his security for appearance for trial.

Potatoe Rot.—The Whitewater Register is informed that the potatoe rot has already made its appearance among the early planted potatoes in that vicinity. Many express fears that since it begins its ravages thus early, it will be likely to cause the loss of a large portion of the crop.

Minnesota.—The republicans of Minnesota have unanimously nominated Cyrus Aldrich and Wm. Windom for re-election to congress. This is not merely an endorsement of faithful representatives, but a guarantee of their re-election by increased majorities.

An enthusiastic doctor, writing from Pike's Peak, advises consumptives to forsake sea coasts and watering places—the common graveyards of consumptives—and spend a season among the Rocky Mountains, where they can get fresh and genuine bear's flesh, grease and all, which he says is better for consumption than all the cod liver oil in the world. "Here, and here alone," says he, "we verily believe, this mournfully interesting class will find the long sought for elixir vitæ."

For the Daily Gazette.

VIM.

Messrs. Editors:—On reading cousin "Ralph's" letter in the Milwaukee Free Democrat of the 16th inst., wherein he expressed a desire that a "little more vim might be infused into the sanctum of the Daily Gazette," I was a good deal puzzled to understand him—and I am quite uncertain whether I yet have his meaning. I confess I was in about as much of a quandary over this little word "vim," as I was recently in seeking to divine the purport of E. J. G.'s "D. V." But the brief star communication set me right on this subject, and I found that D. V. meant Deo Volente! How astonishingly stupid I was not to have understood these initials as they appeared in the published notice.

So when I came across the word vim, I said at once, what does it mean? Well, to satisfy myself, if possible, I consulted Webstdr and Worcester. But among their words and pictures I failed to find any vim. The nearest approach I could make to it was in "viminal," a word relating to twigs. Then I took it for granted, judging analogically, that "vim" was somewhat related to "viminal," and that it probably meant something about twigs. But the query arose, why the necessity of infusing twigs into your sanctum? Here was a poser.—Finally it occurred to me that an explanation might be given on this wise: An editor's sanctum is not, generally speaking, very much like a parlor. Dust is apt to accumulate on the floor, and sometimes cobwebs are suspended from wall and ceiling. None of these things trouble an editor over much. But perhaps Ralph, being in the habit of visiting the sanctum, might have been annoyed by this state of things, and desired a cleaning out. In his boyhood, especially if he came from "down east," he had probably often seen brooms made of hemlock twigs. He might simply mean, therefore, that it would be advisable to set such a bundle of twigs in motion in your office. Again it occurred to me that Ralph might have employed a figure of speech in his letter. Perhaps he didn't mean to be understood as conveying the impression that your sanctum needed twigging. When he spoke of the "container," he meant only the thing or things contained—in which case the editors were probably referred to; and by infusing a little "vim" into them, it is presumed that he thought it advisable to have them put through a course of sprouts! Not wishing to take the responsibility himself, and knowing very well, probably, that the editors of the Free Democrat were valiant in fight, he calls upon them to give the vimless editors what they deserve.

Notwithstanding these thoughts and more passed through my brain, I wasn't certain that I had cousin Ralph's meaning after all. After cogitating considerably on the subject, I saw your "vim" leader in the Gazette of the 18th inst. I read it carefully, and was inclined to think your positions were well taken. But there was still a sort of vague uncertainty in my mind as to what constitutes the true vim. I wish the lexicographers in their "war of words" would take this "vim" into consideration and tell us what it means—whether it is true courage, bluster, a sort of devil-daring course, a Bowie knife or meat-ax argument—such an argument as the Home League employs, for instance, in its opposition to the holders of farm mortgages—whether it means one thing or the other; I wish cousin Ralph or some one else who is versed im mystic lore would inform me.

Perhaps I have already exposed my ignorance in confessing myself not well posted on the subject of "vim." So no more for the present. I may (C. P.) address you again by and by.

Yours viminally, ROBERT.

Reform School at Waukesha.

This new institution is a wise and creditable offspring of our state legislature. The building is well located in one of our pleasantest towns, and is constructed upon an admirable model and of the best materials. The superintendent, Dr. Barrett, very kindly showed us through the edifice and explained everything pertaining to it, and the system of government and instruction.—Here are fourteen boys and girls, who have found their way thither, from the lowest grades of society. We looked into the school room, where they study four hours of the day, and were gratified with their appearance and exercises. Under the lead of the Doctor's daughters, one of them played the melodeon, they sang, "I have a Father, &c.," and "O, do not be discouraged, &c.," and with pleasing heartiness. There were boys picked up out of the lowest haunts of Milwaukee, and girls arrested for vagrancy, in whose eyes gleamed intelligence, and in whose hearts the first dawnings of hope had begun to appear. We felt grateful for the privilege of living in a state which provides such opportunities of reform under christian influences, for its most degraded and forlorn youth.

There are some Janesville children, that might well find a home there. And our justice will act wisely, if he sends every offender eligible to that school, for the longest term allowed by the law. For, by means of a protracted training, old habits will be broken up and new ones formed. Evil associations will in a measure be forgotten, and strong desires implanted for a noble and use fullife. We advise all visitors in Waukesha to pass through this institution. There is one boy among the inmates, lately a hard, wild newsboy of 12 or 14 years, whose heart is impressed with religious truth in a very remarkable manner and degree. Are there not some christians who will pray for his conversion? He has a fine head, a bright intelligent eye, and a warm heart. His conversion might be the signal of a general work of grace among those seemingly lost outcasts. G.

Census Items.—The population of Richland county is 9,720, being an increase of ten fold over the last census.

McHenry county, Illinois, is about 23,000; the village of Woodstock upwards of 1500, and Marengo between 1100 and 1150.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Death Caused by an Oat Grain.—A young boy died in Newburyport a few days since from internal inflammation; and a post mortem examination proved that he had swallowed the hull of oat or some grain, which, lodging in the intestines, had gathered matter and caused death. But a short time before he had swallowed a cent from which no evil resulted.

Seems Large.—Strakosch is to receive $200,000 for providing the music for the Prince of Wales festival at Montreal.—Adelina Patti and Brignoli are to sing on the occasion. We always thought New York had gone in pretty deep as regarded their "Japanese reception," but it seems Canada can go still deeper.

Delaware.—George P. Fisher, is supported for congressman by both the republican and the union parties of Delaware.—He has a good prospect, and Mr. Whittley, the present democratic member, has declined to be a candidate against him. Delaware will soon be a reliable republican state.

Half dimes, three cent pieces, coppers and nickels are unknown to California commerce, although a few half-dimes were once issued to the great indignation of some people, who consider them a dangerous innovation, as having a tendency to reduce the price of labor and the profits of trade.

When John Loring Austin was sent to Philadelphia, with dispatches announcing the capture of Burgoyne, he sent a note to Dr. Chauncy of Boston, requesting the prayers of the church for its safe passage. The doctor, full of patriotism, earnestly added the prayer that "whatever became of the young man, the package might arrive safe."

In New York, the other day, a young man, twenty years of age, named Patnell Calahan, while disputing with some comrades about courage, snatched up a table knife and stabded himself several times in the stomach, to show that the was not a coward. He was under the influence of liquor at the time. He will probably die of the injuries.

In many quarters of Texas the long continued drouth has almost been broken, though it is believed too late for much benefit to the crops.

The Great Eastern departed from New York on Thursday, for Halifax and home, taking some 200 passengers, about half of them to go through. She slipped away as quietly as an ordinary steamer, and the fact of her departue, in striking contrast to the lengthy details given on her arrival, occupies but a line of type and divides even that with another. The great ship came in at the big end of the horn and goes out at the little.

Dogs in New York.—Up to the present time this season 4,293 dogs have been taken to the dog-pound in New York, for which the city has paid $1,073.25. The pound remains open until the first of September.

Gold Dollars and Nickel Cents.—Considerable complaint has been made of late of the enormous quantities of gold dollars and nickel cents put in circulation from the mint. So great is their number in New York that serious inconvenience is felt from it. It is stated that not less than twelve millions of the former are in use in that city. Relief is about to be afforded by the recoinage of two millions of the little dollars into double eagles, an order having been issued to that effect.

A Coincidence.—The four candidates for state officers nominated by the New York Douglas-Bell-Everett squatter-sovereignty-know-nothing convention, are all named William. The Breckinridge party, deeming them unsound democrats, will probably condemn the whole batch as "bogus Bills."

A Rich City.—New Bedford, Mass., has a greater aggregate of wealth according to the population, than any other city in the United States. In case of an equal distribution of property to every male citizen of the place, the amount would be more than $4,300 each; and if divided among all the inhabitants, every man, woman and child would receive a sum exceeding $1,000.—The total valuation is $23,112,900; the number of males paying a poll tax of $1,50 each, 5,317.

Consolation.—The European Times, in commenting upon the prospect of short crops in Europe, says, "It is some consolation that the wheat crops in the United States, and more especially in the Western states, have been unusually prolific this season, and, even thus early, preparations are making for exporting largely to England." According to some of the French journals, the wheat crop in that country will be insufficient for the wants of the people.

Sand for Bedding Horses.—Mr. Small, of Dunkirk, Scotland, a veterinary surgeon of considerable experience, states that sand is not only an excellent substitute for straw for horses bedding, but superior to straw, as the sand does not heat, and saves the hoofs of the horses. He states that sand is exclusively used for horses' beds in his stables.

"Hooking" Things.—We have been furnished with some particulars respecting the burglary on the corner of May and Randolph streets, which we mentioned yesterday. It appears that a room on the first floor of the building was occupied as a sleeping apartment by Mr. George Stevens. Upon retiring he closed the blinds, but left the window raised a little way for ventilation. After prying open the blinds the thieves introduced a stick through the window and with this "hooked" the pants and shirt of the sleeper that were hanging on the bedstead. They took some three or four dollars in money from the wallet, left some papers, receipts, &c., on the window sill, and the pants in the yard on the ground. Attached to the shirt were two valuable sleeve buttons worth some $12. This is a new contrivance for "hooking" and should be watched.—Chicago Journal.

Congressional Nominations.—Hon. John Hutchins has been nominated by the republicans of the Ashtabula (Giddings') district, Ohio, for re-election to congress.

Albert S. White has been nominated for congress by the republicans of the 8th (Lafayette) district of Indiana, in place of Mr. Rice, deceased.

Dr. S. N. Sherman, of Ogdensburgh, has been nominated for congress, for the 17th district, New York, comprising the counties of St. Lawrence and Herkimer. Hon. F. E. Spinner declined a re-nomination.

Telegraphic.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 21.

Letters have been addressed to the New York Herald and Charleston Mercury by Sam C. Reed, jr., of Louisiana, on authority of Breckinridge, contradicting reports of his withdrawal, and stating that he will in few days reply to the slanderous charges of his enemies.

ST. JOSEPH, Aug. 21.

Received news from the mines to 14th. A silver lead mine was discovered near Tarrall, about 65 miles from Denver.

On Friday, 10th inst., a meeting was held at Tarryall and the Platte River Silver Mining company organized. A number of claims were staked off on Saturday, and nearly all the miners in that locality are hastening to the silver district. Great excitement prevails, and the value of the ore will be tested immediately.

At Denver the question of expediency of organizing a state government for the Pike's Peak region is being agitated. Several meetings have been held and various measures proposed, but no important action has been taken.

The first U. S. mail eastward leaves today, containing over four thousand letters.

The number of returning emigrants is decreasing. Business still dull.

QUEBEC, Aug. 20.

The Prince of Wales attended divine service at the Anglican Cathedral yesterday, dressed in plain clothes. He was met at the porch by the bishop and clergy. The governor general's pew had been refitted with crimson drapery and a throne in the centre. The Prince was accompanied by the Duke of New Castle, Earl Mulgrave and Lord Lyons, the Gov. General, Admiral Milino, Sir Frederick and Williams, and many others of the army and navy, the latter in full uniform. The Cathedral was crowded, but the arrangements were excellent and the order remarkable. The sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Houeman, the bishop's chaplain. The Steax arrived this morning. It has rained all day.—Names are entered in the visitors book. A levee will be held at the Parliament House to-morrow.

[Je-ru-sa-lem! Who would have thought it? Was the Prince's boots blacked, and did he clean his finger nails before breakfast?]

The Market.

NEW YORK, August 21.

Flour market without change—sales 12,000 bbls. 5,05a5,15 super state, 5,00a5,10 super western. Wheat market quiet and steady—sales 60,000 bushels. 1,24a1,27 winter red western, 1,20 Racine spring.

A Stingy Nobleman's Dinner Party. The London correspondent of the New York Times writes:

The other day there was a review or inspection at Windsor, which the Queen graced with her presence. Among the gratified spectators was Lord Overstone, the millionaire. To the astonishment of a regiment of volunteers, his lordship asked them all to dine with him at the Portland Barracks a few days afterwards. A large number of them went. They found a long table, and upon it plates containing small portions of cold beef and mutton alternately set, with a tumbler for every mess of four men, and a few lettuces, by way of salad, placed down the center of the table. Small beer and porter in wooden "stoups" completed the entertainment. The majority went away in disgust at this millionaire display; about fifty remained to lunch, and agreed, as a liberal recognition, to send Lord Overstone 12 penny postage stamps each. On the whole transaction his lordship is a gainer. This nobleman is well known for instances of generous profusion of this kind. His fortune is something fabulous; but he will not allow his servants meat for supper, and gives them bread and cheese.

"Popular Sovereignty."—Brooks & Co. surprising Sumner in his seat, knocking him down with a bludgeon, and beating his head to a jelly.

"Non-Intervention."—Douglas standing placidly by and seeing the job thoroughly done.—New York Tribune.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT,

Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.

MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price, Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety, Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices. In fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.

Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill. 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—an origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' speech at Providence, Aug. 2, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

"How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

Wheat Crop of Wisconsin.

The Madison Argus makes the following estimate of the wheat crop in Dane county:

Dane county contains, besides the lakes, 760,000 acres of land. It is a low estimate to say that one-fifth of this land is this year in crop. Many estimate it as high as one-third; more at one-fourth. But we say one-fifth is under cultivation—that is about 150,000 acres. Of the amount under cultivation, two-thirds, or 100,000 acres are covered by the wheat crop.

It is a low estimate to say that the product of wheat will average 26 bushels to the acre. But taking that as an average, we can readily enter into a computation of the crop, and the the surplus in this county alone:

No. of acres	100,000
No. of bushels	2,600,000
Amount reserved for home consumption and seed,	600,000
Surplus,	2,000,000
Price at 75c per bushel,	$1,250,000

Rock County.—Dane county has thirty-two townships, Rock county twenty. The estimate on which a yield of 2,400,000 bushels was made in Rock county, supposed a fourth of the county grown to wheat, and the yield to be 20 bushels to the acre. So far as we have heard, the yield per acre will exceed this estimate; and allowing the amount of land estimated to be sown to be correct, and calling the yield 25 bushels to the acre, there will be a gross product, in round numbers, of 3,000,000 bushels in Rock county. Last week we asked the opinion of farmers or others acquainted with the county on this point. No one has yet responded, perhaps because each individual, though qualified to judge of his own town or locality, is not himself sufficiently acquainted with the whole county to pass an intelligent judgment upon it. We should be pleased to hear from some well-informed person in each town as to his own town, and if each is, in this manner, reported separately, an aggregate can very easily be made.

Grant County.—The Grant County Herald says—"The average yield is much greater to the acre than was anticipated. It was thought that 18 or 19 bushels would be a fair estimate, but those who have threshed assert that the yield is near 28 bushels to the acre. Grant will have at least one million bushels of wheat to spare to distant consumers."

Columbia County.—The Jeffersonian says that a gentleman engaged in threshing in Columbia county states that every farm on which he has threshed, the wheat averaged over 30 bushels to the acre.

The north-western states are unquestionably more favored this season than any other portion of the Union, and of these states no one has been more richly blessed than Wisconsin. While the productions of other sections of the country have been scorched and dried up by a blazing sun and want of rain, or injured by some of the many casualties which ever endanger a growing crop, the north-west has been signally fortunate in every circumstance favorable to unusual production and abundance.

FOND DU LAC RAILROAD BONDS.—The New York Herald says that a proposition has been received from the city of Fond du Lac to compromise its railroad bonds.—The city authorities offer to redeem the $100,000 of 7 per cent bonds issued to the Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac railroad, by giving the holders an amount equal to the principal and interest due them in the stock of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad; to the holders of the $150,000 8 per cent. bonds they offer 30 per cent. in the Chicago and Northwestern stock, and 25 per cent. in new city bonds, to be secured by a sinking fund.

The Herald says that the circular making this proposition declares that "the city of Fond du Lac, desirous of compromising with its bondholders, submit the enclosed proposition as one they can fulfil, and the only one."

THE OLDEN TIME.—The rapid progress of modern days is vividly exhibited by a recurrence to the predictions which have accompanied the announcement of the discoveries or inventions which has characterised the present age. Very many readers will remember that while Dr. Lardner, the Napoleon of physical science, was authoritatively declaring steam navigation on the ocean an impracticability, the Sirius was falsifying the correctness of his opinion. When Prof. Morse commenced the construction of his electric telegraph between Baltimore and Washington, he encountered more skepticism than faith in his theory, and a small appropriation by congress to enable him to make his experiment was extorted only after a laborious effort, and granted more as a compliment to the man than as an acknowledgment of confidence in the success of his discovery.

Railroads, when the idea of faster locomotion than the stage coach began to assume a practical form, was no exception to the prevailing skepticism and ridicule with which other great improvements have been greeted. The English Quarterly Review, in 1825, gravely declared—"We are no advocate for visionary projects that interfere with useful establishments. We scout the idea of a railroad as impracticable! What can be more palpably absurd and ridiculous than the prospect of locomotives traveling twice as fast as stage coaches. We should as soon expect the people of Woolwich to suffer themselves to be fired off upon one of Congreve's rockets, as to put themselves at the mercy of such a machine, going at such a rate."

So, too, when it was proprosed to use gas as a means of lighting streets and buildings, there was no end to the ridicule with which the idea was assailed, until theory had become demonstration. It is related that a member of the English House of Commons opposed its introduction into London, because the fire would run through the pipes and there would not be engines enough to put it out.

Who shall say that many of the ideas now pronounced chimerical shall not, in another fifty years, become, like steam ships, railroads and gas, the necessary comforts of life or indispensable aids to business and progression?

MOURNING!—The Chicago Herald and Times is in a mournful spirit. Nothing has more deeply impressed it recently than "the final and hopeless split of the democracy of Virginia." "The mother of democracy" has a sore trouble in her family.—The time has been when "with a rare devotion to principle, she has at the same time ever shown herself the foremost to conciliate and harmonise the democracy." But, now, alas! even she "has met a rock upon which to split." Hear the mournful tune in which the Herald relates her misfortunes:

"The conventions have utterly failed to agree and have separated to wage from henceforth a war of extermination upon each other. Virginia is to all appearances lost to democracy in the present campaign. The great names and tried democrats arrayed on each side of the family quarrel leave but the shadow of a hope for success to either. The state, as now divided, must go for Bell and Everett. We cannot anticipate the fall of the Virginia democracy, even in a single campaign, without deep regret."

Has it not occured to this tearful mourner that other states than Virginia are in the same distracted condition? That Bell and Everett will take possession of other members of the once happy family? and that Breckinridge will find favor with enough others to leave the "Little Giant" a penniless and discarded offspring? Truly, the mourners go about the streets all day with little present comfort and less hope for the future.

☞ The Monroe meeting, a genuine "fizzle" as it was, seems a perfect god-send to the democracy. It has enabled as disconsolate a set of mortals as you seldom meet, a chance to say something: and has not the chance been improved! A correspondent of the Chicago Herald and Times emulates "Sioux" in spirit, though he falls short of that renowned chronicler in length. This last writer, dating at Janesville, asserts that "there were not less than 5,000 people on the ground, and at every mention of Douglas' name, cheer after cheer burst from the assembly, showing that he holds the first place in the hearts of the people." The speeches are characterised as "soul-stirring efforts," "sound argument," "noble," "powerful and telling," while "hearty cheers," "booming cannon," "torches," "banners," "music," "enthusiasm," "densely filled," "decided success," &c. grace the narrative. In one thing, however, this correspondent shows his good sense: he "only gives the programme from 11 a. m." A want of time, we suppose, prevents a description of the starting of the excursion train from Janesville.

Why was not this report sent to the Cleveland Plaindealer?

☞ The Free Democrat says that Gen. Jas. H. Paine and Judge A. D. Smith are retained as counsel for Mr. Daniels, in the complaint against him for rescuing Booth. C. C. Sholes and J. L. Bonesteel became his security for appearance for trial.

POTATOE ROT.—The Whitewater Register is informed that the potatoe rot has already made its appearance among the early planted potatoes in that vicinity. Many express fears that since it begins its ravages thus early, it will be likely to cause the loss of a large portion of the crop.

MINNESOTA.—The republicans of Minnesota have unanimously nominated Cyrus Aldrich and Wm. Windom for re-election to congress. This is not merely an endorsement of faithful representatives, but a guarantee of their re-election by increased majorities.

An enthusiastic doctor, writing from Pike's Peak, advises consumptives to forsake sea coasts and watering places—the common graveyards of consumptives—and spend a season among the Rocky Mountains, where they can get fresh and genuine bear's flesh, grease and all, which he says is better for consumption than all the cod liver oil in the world. "Here, and here alone," says he, "we verily believe, this mournfully interesting class will find the long sought for elixir vitæ."

For the Daily Gazette.

VIM.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—On reading cousin "Ralph's" letter in the Milwaukee Free Democrat of the 16th inst., wherein he expressed a desire that a "little more vim might be infused into the sanctum of the Daily Gazette," I was a good deal puzzled to understand him—and I am quite uncertain whether I yet have his meaning. I confess I was in about as much of a quandary over this little word "vim," as I was recently in seeking to divine the purport of E. J. G.'s "D. V." But the brief star communication set me right on this subject, and I found that D. V. meant Deo Volente! How astonishingly stupid I was not to have understood these initials as they appeared in the published notice.

So when I came across the word vim, I said at once, what does it mean? Well, to satisfy myself, if possible, I consulted Webstdr and Worcester. But among their words and pictures I failed to find any vim. The nearest approach I could make to it was in "viminal," a word relating to twigs. Then I took it for granted, judging analogically, that "vim" was somewhat related to "viminal," and that it probably meant something about twigs. But the query arose, why the necessity of infusing twigs into your sanctum? Here was a poser.—Finally it occurred to me that an explanation might be given on this wise: An editor's sanctum is not, generally speaking, very much like a parlor. Dust is apt to accumulate on the floor, and sometimes cobwebs are suspended from wall and ceiling. None of these things trouble an editor over much. But perhaps Ralph, being in the habit of visiting the sanctum, might have been annoyed by this state of things, and desired a cleaning out. In his boyhood, especially if he came from "down east," he had probably often seen brooms made of hemlock twigs. He might simply mean, therefore, that it would be advisable to set such a bundle of twigs in motion in your office. Again it occurred to me that Ralph might have employed a figure of speech in his letter. Perhaps he didn't mean to be understood as conveying the impression that your sanctum needed twigging. When he spoke of the "container," he meant only the thing or things contained—in which case the editors were probably referred to; and by infusing a little "vim" into them, it is presumed that he thought it advisable to have them put through a course of sprouts! Not wishing to take the responsibility him self, and knowing very well, probably, that the editors of the Free Democrat were valiant in fight, he calls upon them to give the vimless editors what they deserve.

Notwithstanding these thoughts and more passed through my brain, I wasn't certain that I had cousin Ralph's meaning after all. After cogitating considerably on the subject, I saw your "vim" leader in the Gazette of the 18th inst. I read it carefully, and was inclined to think your positions were well taken. But there was still a sort of vague uncertainty in my mind as to what constitutes the true vim. I wish the lexicographers in their "war of words" would take this "vim" into consideration and tell us what it means—whether it is true courage, bluster, a sort of devil-daring course, a Bowie knife or meat-ax argument—such an argument as the Home League employs, for instance, in its opposition to the holders of farm mortgages—whether it means one thing or the other; I wish cousin Ralph or some one else who is versed im mystic lore would inform me.

Perhaps I have already exposed my ignorance in confessing myself not well posted on the subject of "vim." So no more for the present. I may (C. P.) address you again by and by.

Yours viminally, ROBERT.

Reform School at Waukesha.

This new institution is a wise and creditable offspring of our state legislature. The building is well located in one of our pleasantest towns, and is constructed upon an admirable model and of the best materials. The superintendent, Dr. Barrett, very kindly showed us through the edifice and explained everything pertaining to it, and the system of government and instruction.—Here are fourteen boys and girls, who have found their way thither, from the lowest grades of society. We looked into the school room, where they study four hours of the day, and were gratified with their appearance and exercises. Under the lead of the Doctor's daughters, one of them played the melodeon, they sang, "I have a Father, &c.," and "O, do not be discouraged, &c.," and with pleasing heartiness. There were boys picked up out of the lowest haunts of Milwaukee, and girls arrested for vagrancy, in whose eyes gleamed intelligence, and in whose hearts the first dawnings of hope had begun to appear. We felt grateful for the privilege of living in a state which provides such opportunities of reform under christian influences, for its most degraded and forlorn youth.

There are some Janesville children, that might well find a home there. And our justice will act wisely, if he sends every offender eligible to that school, for the longest term allowed by the law. For, by means of a protracted training, old habits will be broken up and new ones formed. Evil associations will in a measure be forgotten, and strong desires implanted for a noble and use fullife. We advise all visitors in Waukesha to pass through this institution. There is one boy among the inmates, lately a hard, wild newsboy of 12 or 14 years, whose heart is impressed with religious truth in a very remarkable manner and degree. Are there not some christians who will pray for his conversion? He has a fine head, a bright intelligent eye, and a warm heart. His conversion might be the signal of a general work of grace among those seemingly lost outcasts. G.

CENSUS ITEMS.—The population of Richland county is 9,720, being an increase of ten fold over the last census.

McHenry county, Illinois, is about 23,000; the village of Woodstock upwards of 1500, and Marengo between 1100 and 1150.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

DEATH CAUSED BY AN OAT GRAIN.—A young boy died in Newburyport a few days since from internal inflammation; and a post mortem examination proved that he had swallowed the hull of oat or some grain, which, lodging in the intestines, had gathered matter and caused death. But a short time before he had swallowed a cent from which no evil resulted.

SEEMS LARGE.—Strakosch is to receive $200,000 for providing the music for the Prince of Wales festival at Montreal.—Adelina Patti and Brignoli are to sing on the occasion. We always thought New York had gone in pretty deep as regarded their "Japanese reception," but it seems Canada can go still deeper.

DELAWARE.—George P. Fisher, is supported for congressman by both the republican and the union parties of Delaware.—He has a good prospect, and Mr. Whittley, the present democratic member, has declined to be a candidate against him. Delaware will soon be a reliable republican state.

Half dimes, three cent pieces, coppers and nickels are unknown to California commerce, although a few half dimes were once issued to the great indignation of some people, who consider them a dangerous innovation, as having a tendency to reduce the price of labor and the profits of trade.

When John Loring Austin was sent to Philadelphia, with dispatches announcing the capture of Burgoyne, he sent a note to Dr. Chauncey of Boston, requesting the prayers of the church for its safe passage. The doctor, full of patriotism, earnestly added the prayer that "whatever became of the young man, the package might arrive safe."

In New York, the other day, a young man, twenty years of age, named Patnell Calahan, while disputing with some comrades about courage, snatched up a table knife and stabded himself several times in the stomach, to show that the was not a coward. He was under the influence of liquor at the time. He will probably die of the injuries.

In many quarters of Texas the long continued drouth has almost been broken, though it is believed too late for much benefit to the crops.

The Great Eastern departed from New York on Thursday, for Halifax and home, taking some 200 passengers, about half of them to go through. She slipped away as quietly as an ordinary steamer, and the fact of her departue, in striking contrast to the lengthy details given on her arrival, occupies but a line of type and divides even that with another. The great ship came in at the big end of the horn and goes out at the little.

DOGS IN NEW YORK.—Up to the present time this season 4,293 dogs have been taken to the dog-pound in New York, for which the city has paid $1,073.25. The pound remains open until the first of September.

GOLD DOLLARS AND NICKEL CENTS.—Considerable complaint has been made of late of the enormous quantities of gold dollars and nickel cents put in circulation from the mint. So great is their number in New York that serious inconvenience is felt from it. It is stated that not less than twelve millions of the former are in use in that city. Relief is about to be afforded by the recoinage of two millions of the little dollars into double eagles, an order having been issued to that effect.

A COINCIDENCE.—The four candidates for state officers nominated by the New York Douglas-Bell-Everett squatter-sovereignty-know-nothing convention, are all named William. The Breckinridge party, deeming them unsound democrats, will probably condemn the whole batch as "bogus Bills."

A RICH CITY.—New Bedford, Mass., has a greater aggregate of wealth according to the population, than any other city in the United States. In case of an equal distribution of property to every male citizen of the place, the amount would be more than $1,300 each: and if divided among all the inhabitants, every man, woman and child would receive a sum exceeding $1,000.—The total valuation is $23,112,900; the number of males paying a poll tax of $1,50 each, 5,317.

CONSOLATION.—The European Times, in commenting upon the prospect of short crops in Europe, says, "It is some consolation that the wheat crops in the United States, and more especially in the Western states, have been unusually prolific this season, and, even thus early, preparations are making for exporting largely to England." According to some of the French journals, the wheat crop in that country will be insufficient for the wants of the people.

SAND FOR BEDDING HORSES.—Mr. Small, of Dunkirk, Scotland, a veterinary surgeon of considerable experience, states that sand is not only an excellent substitute for straw for horses bedding, but superior to straw, as the sand does not heat, and saves the hoofs of the horses. He states that sand is exclusively used for horses' beds in his stables.

"HOOKING" THINGS.—We have been furnished with some particulars respecting the burglary on the corner of May and Randolph streets, which we mentioned yesterday. It appears that a room on the first floor of the building was occupied as a sleeping apartment by Mr. George Stevens. Upon retiring he closed the blinds, but left the window raised a little way for ventilation. After prying open the blinds the thieves introduced a stick through the window and with this "hooked" the pants and shirt of the sleeper that were hanging on the bedstead. They took some three or four dollars in money from the wallet, left some papers, receipts, &c., on the window sill, and the pants in the yard on the ground. Attached to the shirt were two valuable sleeve buttons worth some $12. This is a new contrivance for "hooking" and should be watched.—Chicago Journal.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS. — Hon. John Hutchins has been nominated by the republicans of the Ashtabula (Giddings') district, Ohio, for re-election to congress.

Albert S. White has been nominated for congress by the republicans of the 8th (Lafayette) district of Indiana, in place of Mr. Rice, deceased.

Dr. S. N. Sherman, of Ogdensburgh, has been nominated for congress, for the 17th district, New York, comprising the counties of St. Lawrence and Herkimer. Hon. F. E. Spinner declined a re-nomination.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 21.

Letters have been addressed to the New York Herald and Charleston Mercury by Sam C. Reed, jr., of Louisiana, on authority of Breckinridge, contradicting reports of his withdrawal, and stating that he will in few days reply to the slanderous charges of his enemies.

ST. JOSEPH, Aug. 21.

Received news from the mines to 14th. A silver lead mine was discovered near Tarrall, about 65 miles from Denver.

On Friday, 10th inst., a meeting was held at Tarryall and the Platte River Silver Mining company organized. A number of claims were staked off on Saturday, and nearly all the miners in that locality are hastening to the silver district. Great excitement prevails, and the value of the ore will be tested immediately.

At Denver the question of expediency of organizing a state government for the Pike's Peak region is being agitated. Several meetings have been held and various measures proposed, but no important action has been taken.

The first U. S. mail eastward leaves today, containing over four thousand letters.

The number of returning emigrants is decreasing. Business still dull.

QUEBEC, Aug. 20.

The Prince of Wales attended divine service at the Anglican Cathedral yesterday, dressed in plain clothes. He was met at the porch by the bishop and clergy. The governor general's pew had been refitted with crimson drapery and a throne in the centre. The Prince was accompanied by the Duke of New Castle, Earl Mulgrave and Lord Lyons, the Gov. General, Admiral Milino, Sir Frederick and Williams, and many others of the army and navy, the latter in full uniform. The Cathedral was crowded, but the arrangements were excellent and the order remarkable. The sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Houeman, the bishop's chaplain. The Steax arrived this morning. It has rained all day.—Names are entered in the visitors book. A levee will be held at the Parliament House to-morrow.

[Je-ru sa lem! Who would have thought it? Was the Prince's boots blacked, and did he clean his finger nails before breakfast?]

A STINGY NOBLEMAN'S DINNER PARTY. The London correspondent of the New York Times writes:

The other day there was a review or inspection at Windsor, which the Queen graced with her presence. Among the gratified spectators was Lord Overstone, the millionaire. To the astonishment of a regiment of volunteers, his lordship asked them all to dine with him at the Portland Barracks a few days afterwards. A large number of them went. They found a long table, and upon it plates containing small portions of cold beef and mutton alternately set, with a tumbler for every mess of four men, and a few lettuces, by way of salad, placed down the center of the table. Small beer and porter in wooden "stoups" completed the entertainment. The majority went away in disgust at this millionaire display: about fifty remained to lunch, and agreed, as a liberal recognition, to send Lord Overstone 12 penny postage stamps each. On the whole transaction his lordship is a gainer. This nobleman is well known for instances of generous profusion of this kind. His fortune is something fabulous; but he will not allow his servants meat for supper, and gives them bread and cheese.

"POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY."—Brooks & Co. surprising Sumner in his seat, knocking him down with a bludgeon, and beating his head to a jelly.

"NON INTERVENTION."—Douglas standing placidly by and seeing the job thoroughly done.—New York Tribune.

Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices. In fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO

Dentistry.

M. B. Johnson still continues the practice of Dentistry at the old place, over the Rock County Bank, corner Main and Milwaukee streets, Janesville, Wis. He is now manufacturing artificial Dentures on Vulcanized Rubber Pate. This substance has been thoroughly tested, and found to be superior to many others. It is very strong and light, and is worn with greater ease and comfort than most anything else, and can be afforded at a price which places it within the reach of all Call and see it. He also continues to make the Continuous Gum Work, which is superior to all others; together with all other styles of work now in use.

SHABBY.—The Janesville correspondent of the Chicago Herald and Times, describing the Monroe meeting, refers to two of the speakers as "Mr. Mitchell of Janesville, and Judge Pratt of Waukesha." We object to slurring our eloquent young friend, Wm. L. Mitchell, in this kind of style.—"Mr. Mitchell and Judge Pratt." The man who opposes the "fanaticism of the south and the fanaticism of the north," and who is ready at all times with his pen and his tongue to defend the cause he so earnestly espouses, ought not to be treated in this cavalier way. Are the old leaders of the party jealous of the rising influence and genius of their younger associates?

☞ At night, when wearied limbs are stretched upon couches of repose and the drooping eyelids have closed to a sweet sleep, 'tis not often pleasant to be aroused by unusual noises in the street. To this very general rule there are some pleasant exceptions. It is sweet to dream of hearing beautiful music, and then be gradually aroused to the wakeful state with the impression of that dream clearly vivid upon the memory, to a full realization of it.—We were awakened last night from a sound sleep, during one of these pleasant dreams, by the Bower City Band. The air was clear, and not a breath was stirring to destroy the effect of the music to which we had been so unconsciously listening, and it was with increased pleasure that we assured ourselves that our dream had not been wholly a dream. We listened with more than satisfaction to the music of the band until we again fell to that unconscious sleep from which, but a few moments before, we had been aroused, thankful that it was nothing more than the reality of what we had been dreaming. We do not object to being awakened under such circumstances, even at the dead hour of night, for the lulling to sleep by music is sweeter than to lie and listen to it.

☞ Dust, dust, dust. The air is full of it, the house is full of it, the stores are full it, the trees are covered with it, and everything bears an outward appearance of being made of dust—even man. Were it not that so many farmers have their grain yet in process of stacking, we could devoutly wish for rain ankle deep.

THE CROP OF WISCONSIN.—For once, the eastern compiler of the telegraphic reports has taken notice of a western item. Under date of the 20th he says—"A private letter from Wisconsin, from one who has made extensive observations and enquiries, assures us that the new wheat crop of that state threshes out even better than the estimates. The crop of that state will not fall one kernel short of 30,000,000 bushels.—We believe the largest crop ever before harvested in the state was not half so large as that of 1860, which is now nearly secured in excellent condition."

The importance of Wisconsin as a grain growing region having been recognized by the man whose position gives him an opportunity to act as contributor to half the press of the Union, it is likely that the immense surplus production of Wisconsin will become better known than if left to the agricultural editor of the New York Tribune.

PATENTS GRANTED.—The following important patents were issued from the United States Patent Office, the week ending August 14th:

B. W. Brnel, Beloit, Wisconsin; improved mop holder.

Wm. H. Churchman, Janesville, Wis., improvement in furnaces for heating buildings.

Charles Marston, Viroqua, Wisconsin; improvement in grain harvesters.

☞ We have learned that it is the intention of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2 to take an excursion to Watertown, Fond du Lac and Oshkosh about the 19th of September. They are going for the sake of a little fun and enjoyment, and we commend them to the special care of the departments in those places.

☞ The Madison Patriot says that the Dane Cavalry, Capt. H. S. Orton, are talking of visiting this city during the National Horse Show. This is undoubtedly the best cavalry company in the west, and should they decide to come, will add greatly to the already many attractions of this exhibition. We hope to see them.

☞ A rumor is current that Rock River Engine Co. No. 1 passed a resolution last evening, to disband and put its apparatus in the hands of the city.

SUICIDE OF A SENSITIVE YOUTH.—At Blairstown, New Jersey, a young man named Hulme, killed himself because the principal of a boarding school found a love letter addressed by him to one of the female pupils, and read it aloud. A letter says:

The young man, it seems, had taken a fancy to, and had been corresponding occasionally with a young lady in or near Blairstown. The principal of the school, Mr. Johnson, having found this out, forbade the correspondence, and even wrote himself to the young lady, forbidding her to send the young man any more letters. She, however, continued to write, and it happened, a day or two before the fatal occurrence, that the young man chanced to drop one of her letters, which letter was found and carried to Johnson. Instead of returning the letter to the young man, with such kind admonitions as his own good judgment ought to have suggested, this fool, or knave, or both, had the letter publicly read before the school, which so wrought upon the young man's mind that he at once determined to put an end to his own existence. The shame, as he thought it, of such a public exposure, was more than he was able to bear.

MANURING GRASS LANDS WITH STRAW.—A writer in the Prairie Farmer, by spreading a quantity of straw over a timothy meadow in the spring, increased the product of hay one-third the same season, and it has been double for two seasons since, over the remainder of the field. He says he had no trouble in raking the meadow with a horse-rake without disturbing the mulch, and that he has since used all his litter in the same way, with good results.

REPUBLICAN CLUB MEETING.—The Janesville City Republican Club will meet Wednesday evening next, Aug. 22d, at half-past 7 o'clock, at the court room. The meeting will be addressed by Mr. Ichabod Codding of Illinois, one of the most effective speakers in the west. Let us give him a full house. Democrats are invited to attend.

Assembly Convention.

Proceedings of a republican convention, for the assembly district composed of the towns of Rock, Plymouth, Magnolia, Spring Valley, Newark and Avon, held at the village of Orford, on Saturday the 19th day of August, 1860, for the purpose of choosing two delegates to represent said district in the congressional convention to be held at La Crosse, on the 22d instant.

On motion, N. B. Howard was elected chairman, and K. W. Bemis secretary.

The chair appointed John L. V. Thomas, Geo. Golden and Orrin Guernsey a committee on credentials.

The committee on credendials reported the following delegates:

Rock—Wm. H. Tripp, Orrin Guernsey, A. Hayner.

Plymouth—O. F. Wallihan, A. Smiley, K. W. Bemis.

Magnolia—N. B. Howard, E. Basye, S. Holdridge, Jr., T. J. Edwards.

Spring Valley—C. C. Coon, D. C. Chipman, C. F. Dickey.

Newark—A. H. Sheppard, E. L. Carpenter, John L. V. Thomas.

Avon—Geo. Golden, Jerome Burbanks.

The report of the committee was adopted.

D. C. Chipman, delegate from Spring Valley, not being in attendance, on motion Geo. W. Stetson was admitted as a substitute.

The chair appointed Wm. H. Tripp and E. L. Carpenter tellers.

Proceeded to ballot for delegates, which resulted in the election of Daniel Mowe, of Spring Valley; and N. B. Howard, of Magnolia.

On motion, voted that Magnolia shall hereafter be entitled to only three delegates in district conventions.

N. B. HOWARD, Chairman.

K. W. BEMIS, Secretary.

ANOTHER FIRE AT OSHKOSH.—We learn from Mr. Bentley, of the Bentley House, that there was another fire at Oshkosh, on Friday night. It caught in the rear of the barn adjoining a store kept by Glover, and burned the barn, the store and three dwellings, all in Main street opposite the Bentley House.

The large new hotel owned by Mr. Stringham caught fire, but it was extinguished with considerable loss.

The store and barn was owned by Glover. One dwelling and saloon, both in one, were owned by a man named Gabour.

The total loss must have been from three to five thousand dollars, and it was a narrow escape from another heavy conflagration.

It was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. That city seems to be doomed.

Even the boys in the streets appreciate the position of the Bell leaders in New York. At the conference with the Douglas men at Syracuse, on Tuesday, the Bell men had a procession, the effect of which was much impaired by a parcel boys who followed it, ringing small bells and shouting "auction," "auction."

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders,			1857,	33½ ⅌ ct

SHABBY.—The Janesville correspondent of the Chicago Herald and Times, describing the Monroe meeting, refers to two of the speakers as "Mr. Mitchell of Janesville, and Judge Pratt of Waukesha." We object to slurring our eloquent young friend, Wm. L. Mitchell, in this kind of style—"Mr. Mitchell and Judge Pratt." The man who opposes the "fanaticism of the south and the fanaticism of the north," and who is ready at all times with his pen and his tongue to defend the cause he so earnestly espouses, ought not to be treated in this cavalier way. Are the old leaders of the party jealous of the rising influence and genius of their younger associates?

☞ At night, when wearied limbs are stretched upon couches of repose and the drooping eyelids have closed to a sweet sleep, 'tis not often pleasant to be aroused by unusual noises in the street. To this very general rule there are some pleasant exceptions. It is sweet to dream of hearing beautiful music, and then be gradually aroused to the wakeful state with the impression of that dream clearly vivid upon the memory, to a full realization of it.—We were awakened last night from a sound sleep, during one of these pleasant dreams, by the Bower City Band. The air was clear, and not a breath was stirring to destroy the effect of the music to which we had been so unconsciously listening, and it was with increased pleasure that we assured ourselves that our dream had not been wholly a dream. We listened with more than satisfaction to the music of the band until we again fell to that unconscious sleep from which, but a few moments before, we had been aroused, thankful that it was nothing more than the reality of what we had been dreaming. We do not object to being awakened under such circumstances, even at the dead hour of night, for the lulling to sleep by music is sweeter than to lie and listen to it.

☞ Dust, dust, dust. The air is full of it, the house is full of it, the stores are full of it, the trees are covered with it, and everything bears an outward appearance of being made of dust—even man. Were it not that so many farmers have their grain yet in process of stacking, we could devoutly wish for rain ankle deep.

THE CROP OF WISCONSIN.—For once, the eastern compiler of the telegraphic reports has taken notice of a western item. Under date of the 20th he says—"A private letter from Wisconsin, from one who has made extensive observations and enquiries, assures us that the new wheat crop of that state threshes out even better than the estimates. The crop of that state will not fall one kernel short of 30,000,000 bushels.—We believe the largest crop ever before harvested in the state was not half so large as that of 1860, which is now nearly secured in excellent condition."

The importance of Wisconsin as a grain growing region having been recognized by the man whose position gives him an opportunity to act as contributor to half the press of the Union, it is likely that the immense surplus production of Wisconsin will become better known than if left to the agricultural editor of the New York Tribune.

PATENTS GRANTED.—The following important patents were issued from the United States Patent Office, the week ending August 14th:

E. W. Brad, Beloit, Wisconsin: improved mop holder.

Wm. H. Churchman, Janesville, Wis., improvement in furnaces for heating buildings.

Charles Marston, Viroqua, Wisconsin: improvement in grain harvesters.

☞ We have learned that it is the intention of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2 to take an excursion to Watertown, Fond du Lac and Oshkosh about the 19th of September. They are going for the sake of a little fun and enjoyment, and we commend them to the special care of the departments in those places.

☞ The Madison Patriot says that the Dane Cavalry, Capt. H. S. Orton, are talking of visiting this city during the National Horse Show. This is undoubtedly the best cavalry company in the west, and should they decide to come, will add greatly to the already many attractions of this exhibition. We hope to see them.

☞ A rumor is current that Rock River Engine Co. No. 1 passed a resolution last evening, to disband and put its apparatus in the hands of the city.

SUICIDE OF A SENSITIVE YOUTH.—At Blairstown, New Jersey, a young man named Hulme, killed himself because the principal of a boarding school found a love letter addressed by him to one of the female pupils, and read it aloud. A letter says:

The young man, it seems, had taken a fancy to, and had been corresponding occasionally with a young lady in or near Blairstown. The principal of the school, Mr. Johnson, having found this out, forbade the correspondence, and even wrote himself to the young lady, forbidding her to send the young man any more letters. She, however, continued to write, and it happened, a day or two before the fatal occurrence, that the young man chanced to drop one of her letters, which letter was found and carried to Johnson. Instead of returning the letter to the young man, with such kind admonitions as his own good judgment ought to have suggested, this fool, or knave, or both, had the letter publicly read before the school, which so wrought upon the young man's mind that he at once determined to put an end to his own existence. The shame, as he thought it, of such a public exposure, was more than he was able to bear.

MANURING GRASS LANDS WITH STRAW.—A writer in the Prairie Farmer, by spreading a quantity of straw over a timothy meadow in the spring, increased the product of hay one-third the same season, and it has been double for two seasons since, over the remainder of the field. He says he had no trouble in raking the meadow with a horse-rake without disturbing the mulch, and that he has since used all his litter in the same way, with good results.

REPUBLICAN CLUB MEETING.—The Janesville City Republican Club will meet Wednesday evening next, Aug. 22d, at half-past 7 o'clock, at the court room. The meeting will be addressed by Mr. Ichabod Codding of Illinois, one of the most effective speakers in the west. Let us give him a full house. Democrats are invited to attend.

Assembly Convention.

Proceedings of a republican convention, for the assembly district composed of the towns of Rock, Plymouth, Magnolia, Spring Valley, Newark and Avon, held at the village of Orford, on Saturday the 19th day of August, 1860, for the purpose of choosing two delegates to represent said district in the congressional convention to be held at La Crosse, on the 22d instant.

On motion, N. B. Howard was elected chairman, and K. W. Bemis secretary.

The chair appointed John L. V. Thomas, Geo. Golden and Orrin Guernsey a committee on credentials.

The committee on credentials reported the following delegates:

Rock—Wm. H. Tripp, Orrin Guernsey, A. Hayner.

Plymouth—O. F. Wallihan, A. Smiley, K. W. Bemis.

Magnolia—N. B. Howard, E. Basye, S. Holdridge, Jr., T. J. Edwards.

Spring Valley—C. C. Coon, D. C. Chipman, C. F. Dickey.

Newark—A. H. Sheppard, E. L. Carpenter, John L. V. Thomas.

Avon—Geo. Golden, Jerome Burbanks.

The report of the committee was adopted.

D. C. Chipman, delegate from Spring Valley, not being in attendance, on motion Geo. W. Stetson was admitted as a substitute.

The chair appointed Wm. H. Tripp and E. L. Carpenter tellers.

Proceeded to ballot for delegates, which resulted in the election of Daniel Mowe, of Spring Valley; and N. B. Howard, of Magnolia.

On motion, voted that Magnolia shall hereafter be entitled to only three delegates in district conventions.

N. B. HOWARD, Chairman.

K. W. BEMIS, Secretary.

ANOTHER FIRE AT OSHKOSH.—We learn from Mr. Bentley, of the Bentley House, that there was another fire at Oshkosh, on Friday night. It caught in the rear of the barn adjoining a store kept by Glover, and burned the barn, the store and three dwellings, all in Main street opposite the Bentley House.

The large new hotel owned by Mr. Stringham caught fire, but it was extinguished with considerable loss.

The store and barn was owned by Glover. One dwelling and saloon, both in one, were owned by a man named Gabour.

The total loss must have been from three to five thousand dollars, and it was a narrow escape from another heavy conflagration.

It was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. That city seems to be doomed.

Even the boys in the streets appreciate the position of the Bell leaders in New York. At the conference with the Douglas men at Syracuse, on Tuesday, the Bell men had a procession, the effect of which was much impaired by a parcel boys who followed it, ringing small bells and shouting "auction," "auction."

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First.—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders,	1857, 33⅓	Pct
2d " " "	1858, 50	"
3d " " "	1859, 50	"
4th " " "	1860, 45	"

Second.—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July, 1856, Net Assets of the Company,	$570,260 40
" 1857, " "	649,719 54

SHABBY.—The Janesville correspondent of the Chicago Herald and Times, describing the Monroe meeting, refers to two of the speakers as "Mr. Mitchell of Janesville, and Judge Pratt of Waukesha." We object to slurring our eloquent young friend, Wm. L. Mitchell, in this kind of style.—"Mr. Mitchell and Judge Pratt." The man who opposes the "fanaticism of the south and the fanaticism of the north," and who is ready at all times with his pen and his tongue to defend the cause he so earnestly espouses, ought not to be treated in this cavalier way. Are the old leaders of the party jealous of the rising influence and genius of their younger associates?

☞ At night, when wearied limbs are stretched upon couches of repose and the drooping eyelids have closed to a sweet sleep, 'tis not often pleasant to be aroused by unusual noises in the street. To this very gen- al rule there are some pleasant exceptions. It is sweet to dream of hearing beau ful music, and then be gradually aroused to the wakeful state with the impression of that dream clearly vivid upon the memory, to a full realization of it.—We were awakened last night from a sound sleep, during one of these pleasant dreams, by the Bower City Band. The air was clear, and not a breath was stirring to destroy the effect of the music to which we had been so unconsciously listening, and it was with increased pleasure that we assured ourselves that our dream had not been wholly a dream. We listened with more than satisfaction to the music of the band until we again fell to that unconscious sleep from which, but a few moments before, we had been aroused, thankful that it was nothing more than the reality of what we had been dreaming. We do not object to being awakened under such circumstances, even at the dead hour of night, for the lulling to sleep by music is sweeter than to lie and listen to it.

☞ Dust, dust, dust. The air is full of it, the house is full of it, the stores are full it, the trees are covered with it, and everything bears an outward appearance of being made of dust—even man. Were it not that so many farmers have their grain yet in process of stacking, we could devoutly wish for rain ankle deep.

THE CROP OF WISCONSIN.—For once, the eastern compiler of the telegraphic reports has taken notice of a western item. Under date of the 20th he says—"A private letter from Wisconsin, from one who has made extensive observations and enquiries, assures us that the new wheat crop of that state threshes out even better than the estimates. The crop of that state will not fall one kernel short of 30,000,000 bushels.—We believe the largest crop ever before harvested in the state was not half so large as that of 1860, which is now nearly secured in excellent condition."

The importance of Wisconsin as a grain growing region having been recognized by the man whose position gives him an opportunity to act as contributor to half the press of the Union, it is likely that the immense surplus production of Wisconsin will become better known than if left to the agricultural editor of the New York Tribune.

PATENTS GRANTED.—The following important patents were issued from the United States Patent Office, the week ending August 14th:

B. W. Brael, Beloit, Wisconsin; improved mop holder.

Wm. H. Churchman, Janesville, Wis., improvement in furnaces for heating buildings.

Charles Marston, Viroqua, Wisconsin; improvement in grain harvesters.

☞ We have learned that it is the intention of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2 to take an excursion to Watertown, Fond du Lac and Oshkosh about the 19th of September. They are going for the sake of a little fun and enjoyment, and we commend them to the special care of the departments in those places.

☞ The Madison Patriot says that the Dane Cavalry, Capt. H. S. Orton, are talking of visiting this city during the National Horse Show. This is undoubtedly the best cavalry company in the west, and should they decide to come, will add greatly to the already many attractions of this exhibition. We hope to see them.

☞ A rumor is current that Rock River Engine Co. No 1 passed a resolution last evening, to disband and put its apparatus in the hands of the city.

SUICIDE OF A SENSITIVE YOUTH.—At Blairstown, New Jersey, a young man named Hulme, killed himself because the principal of a boarding school found a love letter addressed by him to one of the female pupils, and read it aloud. A letter says:

The young man, it seems, had taken a fancy to, and had been corresponding occasionally with a young lady in or near Blairstown. The principal of the school, Mr. Johnson, having found this out, forbade the correspondence, and even wrote himself to the young lady, forbidding her to send the young man any more letters. She, however, continued to write, and it happened, a day or two before the fatal occurrence, that the young man chanced to drop one of her letters, which letter was found and carried to Johnson. Instead of returning the letter to the young man, with such kind admonitions as his own good judgment ought to have suggested, this fool, or knave, or both, had the letter publicly read before the school, which so wrought upon the young man's mind that he at once determined to put an end to his own existence. The shame, as he thought it, of such a public exposure, was more than he was able to bear.

MANURING GRASS LANDS WITH STRAW.—A writer in the Prairie Farmer, by spreading a quantity of straw over a timothy meadow in the spring, increased the product of hay one-third the same season, and it has been double for two seasons since, over the remainder of the field. He says he had no trouble in raking the meadow with a horse-rake without disturbing the mulch, and that he has since used all his litter in the same way, with good results.

REPUBLICAN CLUB MEETING.—The Janesville City Republican Club will meet Wednesday evening next, Aug. 22d, at half-past 7 o'clock, at the court room. The meeting will be addressed by Mr. Ichabod Codding of Illinois, one of the most effective speakers in the west. Let us give him a full house. Democrats are invited to attend.

Assembly Convention.

Proceedings of a republican convention, for the assembly district composed of the towns of Rock, Plymouth, Magnolia, Spring Valley, Newark and Avon, held at the village of Orford, on Saturday the 19th day of August, 1860, for the purpose of choosing two delegates to represent said district in the congressional convention to be held at La Crosse, on the 22d instant.

On motion, N. B. Howard was elected chairman, and K. W. Bemis secretary.

The chair appointed John L. V. Thomas, Geo. Golden and Orrin Guernsey a committee on credentials.

The committee on credendials reported the following delegates:

Rock—Wm. H. Tripp, Orrin Guernsey, A. Hayner.

Plymouth—O. F. Wallihan. A. Smiley, K. W. Bemis.

Magnolia—N. B. Howard, E. Busye. S. Holdridge, Jr., T. J. Edwards.

Spring Valley—C. C. Coon, D. C. Chipman, C. F. Dickey.

Newark—A. H. Sheppard. E. L. Carpenter, John L. V. Thomas.

Avon—Geo. Golden, Jerome Burbanks.

The report of the committee was adopted.

D. C. Chipman, delegate from Spring Valley, not being in attendance, on motion Geo. W. Stetson was admitted as a substitute.

The chair appointed Wm. H. Tripp and E. L. Carpenter tellers.

Proceeded to ballot for delegates, which resulted in the election of Daniel Mowe, of Spring Valley; and N. B. Howard, of Magnolia.

On motion, voted that Magnolia shall hereafter be entitled to only three delegates in district conventions.

N. B. HOWARD, Chairman.

K. W. BEMIS, Secretary.

ANOTHER FIRE AT OSHKOSH.—We learn from Mr. Bentley, of the Bentley House, that there was another fire at Oshkosh, on Friday night. It caught in the rear of the barn adjoining a store kept by Glover, and burned the barn, the store and three dwellings, all in Main street opposite the Bentley House.

The large new hotel owned by Mr. Stringham caught fire, but it was extinguished with considerable loss.

The store and barn was owned by Glover. One dwelling and saloon, both in one, were owned by a man named Gabour.

The total loss must have been from three to five thousand dollars, and it was a narrow escape from another heavy conflagration.

It was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. That city seems to be doomed.

Even the boys in the streets appreciate the position of the Bell leaders in New York. At the conference with the Douglas men at Syracuse, on Tuesday, the Bell men had a procession, the effect of which was much impaired by a parcel boys who followed it, ringing small bells and shouting "auction," "auction."

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.
